MURPHY, the Jeweler.

The burning of Mr. Alanzo Williams's house in Wood street yesterday morning was caused by a defective flue. The fire caught in the rafters and the entire roof was ready to fall in before it was discovered. The loss was almost a total one, and will reach $600, without a dollar of insurance.

Rev. R. E. Moss has selected for his Sunday morning subject "If Christ Was on Earth Who Would He Vote For, Roosevelt or Parker?" It's a cinch the Parson will have a divided house, however he may settle the question in his own mind. This is a matter that is hotting the minds of many men, and they would be willing to pay liberally for a tip as to which of the two men to copper.

One of Maysville's nicest young men was very much broken up this week. He fully expected one of those brown paper invitations—bearing his name in a well-known feminine hand—to the Mask Leap Year Hop, given by the young ladies of Ripley. He had even gone so far as to buy a new suit of clothes, a fashionable hat, new tie and an up-to-date pair of patent leathers in anticipation of the event. Poor fellow.

MARRIED FIFTY YEARS

Former Mason County Couple Celebrate Anniversary in Utah

A recent issue of an Ogden paper contained the following, which will be of interest in this county, the former home of the venerable couple:

October 25th, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Pyles of 2634 Grant avenue, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary, having been married fifty years ago in Maysville, Ky.

Mr. Pyles, who is 75 years of age, is hale and hearty and walks with an elastic tread despite the fact that he has lived longer than the three score and ten mark. Mrs. Pyles is 66 years of age and is the picture of health.

They moved from Kentucky to Utah in 1890 and since moving here have been very successful in property investments until now Mr. Pyles has some thirty families as tenants. While they have lived quiet, unostentatious lives, still, during the time of their residence here, they have made a host of friends who will felicitate them upon so auspicious an event in their life's history as the celebration of their golden wedding.

Most of their relatives are living in Kentucky. Four daughters have blessed their union of whom Mrs. J. R. Skelly is the only one living in Ogden. Two of the four, Mrs. H. M. Pyles and Mrs. J. R. Wheatley, are in Kentucky, while a fourth, Mrs. M. F. Stafford, is residing in Los Angeles, Cal.

The Company furnished Mr. Sweeney's bond. The decision for the defendants is on the idea that the service was rendered by the soldiers, and no regular orders disbursing them were ever received.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75¢. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

BABY QUIRK'S
QUICK CURE

Of Torturing Eczema
by Cuticura
When All Else Had Utterly Failed.

"My baby, Owen Herbert Quirk, was afflicted from the age of six weeks with a loathsome running eczema, almost covering his face. I took him to Drs. and of Victoria Road, Aldershot, and he was treated by them for three months, but got much worse, and was a sickening sight to look at. I saw an advertisement of the Cuticura Remedies, and got the Soap, Ointment and Resolvent.

"We noticed an improvement at once, and within a fortnight the running had ceased and the scales were nearly all dried off, and in a month his face was perfectly clear, not a spot left. I have enclosed photograph of him when he was thirteen months old. He is now two years and four months, and has never had the slightest return of it. I am very grateful for the benefits derived from your remedies, and shall feel it a pleasure to make their value known. For corroboration of this statement you may refer any one to Mrs. Williams, 45 Michaels Road, Aldershot, or Mr. Gunstone, 40 Victoria Road, Aldershot, to whom we recommended the remedies for a skin humour, which they also cured. You are at liberty to do what you like with this statement, as I should like all to know of the value of Cuticura."

PARKER BOWED
KNEE TO BAAL

Lifelong Democrat Reads Himself Out of Party, Denouncing Presidential Candidate.

[Tiffin Dispatch to Ohio State Journal.] Judge Allen Smalley of Upper Sandusky, a lifelong Democrat, who has voted for every Democratic candidate for president from Douglas to Bryan, will not support Parker this year.

For a number of years past the Democratic executive committee has invited Judge Smalley to participate in the speaking campaigns in Seneca county, and, in accordance with the custom, an invitation was extended to him. No reply was received, and a second invitation was extended. Secretary Milton Saylor of the Democratic executive committee is in receipt of the following letter from Judge Smalley:

Yours of recent date received. After receiving your first kind invitation, for which I am duly thankful, consideration for my health was taken under advisement, for I am thirty-five pounds short on weight, with a little throat trouble added, all of which go to handicap a "speaking" man, and my doctor states that the speaking efforts desired will further endanger my health.

I am anxious for the success of our state, congressional and local Democratic tickets. Judge Parker has bowed the knee to Baal and will meet the polluted hands of the money power. The money trust is the key to all others, and I think Judge Parker went out of his way to disclose his readiness to be a humble instrument in the hands of the money power. I won't endanger my health for Judge Parker, but will aid on the balance of the ticket if desired. Respectfully, ALLEN SMALLEY.

JUDGE PARKER'S SPEECHES.

Encyclopedic Essays and Traded Blatant Support.

[From the New York Evening Sun.] "Many years have passed since my native participation in politics," said Judge Parker at Esopus recently. A superfluous avowal; the utterances of every day bear witness to his ignorance of public affairs and his guileless trust in rumor, false report and deliberate misrepresentation. We now know why the judge refused to stump the country. He was not "posted" on the issues of the day and had nothing to say. A Rip Van Winkle repose on the bench had disqualified him for the leadership he was called upon to assume. The world had passed him by while he dreamed his decisions in the dignified seclusion of a court where no echo of the hurly burly was permitted to enter. His income was sufficient for his wants. He had no ambition but to draw it and deserve it. He was a very respectable figure, and his life was regulated like a colonial clock. A man to be envied, why did he get down from his pedestal?

The speeches which Judge Parker is delivering in an attempt to make a Longstreet finish on the presidential track bear out the admission that many years have passed since his active participation in politics. Who but a novice or a Simple Simon would have accepted Edward Atkinson as his guide, statistician and friend in the discussion of the Philippine question? Challenged to show that the islands have cost the government $50,000,000, the judge refers his listeners to a letter contributed by Atkinson to a Democratic newspaper which was a farago of nonsense and a confession of impotence.

The judge's tariff speech a few days ago was an encyclopedic essay which no newspaper would have found space for in its columns had it not been read by a presidential candidate as a set piece. The Evening Post, which always dances when anybody pipes tar, was flabbergasted by the judge's effusion and dismissed it in a pained paragraph. Mr. Cleveland must have snorted when he read the candidate's awkward philippic against the "robber tariff."

The candidate launched another thunderbolt against Republican extravagance, and he is brought up with a round turn by the acting secretary of the treasury, who tells him that if he had perused its daily and monthly bulletins he would not have confused estimates with the difference between receipts and expenditures and might have learned that a deficit of $20,335,542 showed a decrease of $4,000,000 during September and at the same rate of decrease bade fair to disappear by the end of the year. It is a grievous thing when a presidential candidate must have treasury "estimates" explained to him. We don't know who writes Judge Parker's speeches—it is patent he has no time to compose them himself. The national committee ought to be able to hire a competent man to see that the judge does not make himself ridiculous.

The Real Parker.
[From the New York Mail.]

When the campaign was opening Judge Parker counselled his party that nothing should be said "that reflects on the personal honor and integrity of the president." It was a weak man's act, himself to do the very thing he

Mrs. Fairbanks tells how neglect of warning symptoms will soon prostrate a woman. She thinks woman's safeguard is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Ignorance and neglect are the cause of untold female suffering, not only with the laws of health but with the chance of a cure. I did not heed the warnings of headaches, organic pains, and general weariness, until I was well nigh prostrated. I knew I had to do something. Happily I did the right thing. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound faithfully, according to directions, and was rewarded in a few weeks to find that my aches and pains disappeared, and I again felt the glow of health through my body. Since I have been well I have been more careful. I have also advised a number of my sick friends to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and they have never had reason to be sorry. Yours very truly, Mrs. MAY FAIRBANKS, 216 South 7th St., Minneapolis, Minn." (Mrs. Fairbanks is one of the most successful and highest salaried travelling saleswomen in the West.)

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, bloating (or flatulence), general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all-gone" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, blues, and hopelessness, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles. Refuse to buy any other medicine, for you need the best.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For over two years I suffered more than tongue can express with kidney and bladder trouble. My physician pronounced my trouble catarrh of the bladder, caused by displacement of the womb. I had a frequent desire to urinate, and it was very painful, and lumps of blood would pass with the urine. Also had backache very often. "After writing to you, and receiving your reply to my letter, I followed your advice, and feel that you and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have cured me. The medicine drew my womb into its proper place, and then I was well. I never feel any pain now, and can do my housework with ease."—Mrs. ALICE LAMON, Kincaid, Miss.

No other medicine for female ills in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

urged his friends not to do—an act which, unhappily, the country is coming to regard as characteristic of the Democratic presidential candidate. His charge that Roosevelt has sold out to the trusts and that his cabinet ministers are trust agents is dismissed as about the sort of thing that might have been expected from Parker. It is sign of desperation as well as of weakness. The Democratic canvass, sinking in the swirl of defeat, clutches at the last straw.

A PROBLEM SOLVED

A Discovery That Will Be of Benefit to Thousands of People.

There is no doubt about the value of Vinol, this new form of cod liver oil, concerning which so much has been said lately. It is just another one of those great developments that is bound to revolutionize a certain branch of science.
This time the science is that of saving lives;
hence the greater good that will be derived from this discovery.

We refer to the discovery made by those two great French chemists, Mourgues and Gantier, of a process by which the medicinal curative elements known to exist in the cod's liver can be separated from the oil so that all the good part of that famous old remedy, cod liver oil,
can be recovered for the benefit of the sick,
and all the useless oil and grease can be gotten rid of.

Thus they produce a delicious and doubly potent remedy out of a very objectionable one.
It has revolutionized the cod liver oil trade, for who wants to take a nauseating, oily dose of cod liver oil or emulsions when the same benefits can now be obtained from Vinol, which is as delicious to the taste as a fresh orange?

Vinol is simply cod liver oil in a new form—cod liver oil without oil, paradoxical as it may seem—absolutely made from fresh cod's livers, and the greatest flesh and strength creator for young and old known to medicine, and is different from any preparation that can possibly be made by any one else. JOHN C. PECOR, Druggist.

HARD TO EXPLAIN
If This Had Occurred Anywhere Else

It's hard to explain how the public can continue to doubt in the face of such evidence
If this were published anywhere else than in Maysville—if the statement given below went the rounds of the press, readers in Boston or New Orleans might doubt it. But it's very different when the testimony given comes from a friend, perhaps a neighbor. It is public expression of a local citizen, and can be easily investigated.
